“ *Lila was a customer of mine when we first meet, when she moved next door at Bell Forge we wee both still working and didn't get to visit much, but after we both got sick, things were different. We spent plenty of mornings with coffee and smoking still in our PJ till noon some time. We had good times then. I know that the smokeing bad but we both liked it, Our talks were very speical. Last couple of year things have been going on in both our lifes and our timeing came together. I did get to talk to her one more time one evening while she got moved over to hospices. We both said ourlove to each other then She said she wasn't going to be cry baby, and she was ready, good by sweetie she said to me, the I said hope you have good night and I love you.
I'll miss knowing she not just right next door. To my Sweet Friend you'll always be in my heart.*
