“ I've known Linda since she was eight and I was seven years old. She was always smiling and had something nice to say about everyone. Linfa was a true friend and just as beautiful on the inside as she was on the outside. She loved her family and she loved God.with all her heart. I know she's in a better place and all her suffering is gone. My thoughts and prayers will continue to be with her family during their time of grief.
