

Linda Jean Johnson

May 12, 1952 - December 12, 2024

Sunrise May 12, 1952 - Sunset December 12, 2024.

Linda Jean Johnson, 72, of Nashville, passed on to be with her Heavenly Father. Linda was born to Jean Franklin and Ulysses Battle in East Chicago, Indiana. She graduated from Spencer High School in Columbus, Georgia, c/o 1972. Linda moved to Los Angeles, California shortly after high school graduation. Linda spent most of her adult life in Tennessee. Nashville was home to her.

Linda worked many years in the medical insurance industry. Linda had been retired for several years at the time of her passing. Linda was a sports enthusiast. She enjoyed attending the Tennessee Titan football games. She even had the opportunity to attend a Dodger baseball game and a Rams football game in Los Angeles. Linda enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She loved to cook, travel, have luncheons/dinners with her friends, and go shopping.

Linda was preceded in death by her father, Ulysses Battle, paternal grandmother Vera Benton, maternal grandmother Bessie Pickett, her mother, Jean Franklin and her brother, Kevin Battle.

Linda is survived by her siblings, Sandra Smith, Darryl Battle, Joan Franklin, Pamela Franklin, Brigitte Warmesley, Veda Johnson, Darren George and her beloved sister-friend Yolanda Ayotte. She also leaves behind cousins, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews & several close friends.

No services are planned at this time.