“ Cousin Tammy:

Linda & Mike an Barbara came to my 55 birthday a little over 2 years ago. Linda & Mike shopped for my present at Victoria's Secret. Linda loved Victoria Secret! That was probably Linda's doing, Anyway, Linda asked sister Barbara what my favorite color was? Barbara told her red.

When they arrived? Linda come bouncing in with the biggest smile & happy hug! She asked me? "Tammy? What's your favorite color?" I said, "Red." She said, "Good!"

She had the gift fixed so pretty! But for me? The best gift was having Linda, Barbara & Mike there! Anyway? I opened Linda & Mike's gift an it was the most beautiful red purse with a gold chain link strap! I was beyond thrilled & Linda was smiling so big. That was just Linda! A bubbly, sparkly personality & the life of the party. I loved Barbara's gifts too but this is about Linda.

Us three girls, Barbara, Linda an I grew up together and loved each other like sisters. We went a lot of places as children an teens thanks to aunt Martha.

We went to the TN state fair every year, together, cause Aunt Martha made sure to take us.

I know my sister Donna loves Linda as much as me, and wishes she had not missed our younger years. But the great chain of Linda, Barbara an me(Tammy) has been broken an it changes us forever! Aunt Martha an my Dad Tom were sister an brother. Dad had Donna & me, (Tammy) an Aunt Martha had Linda, Barbara an Ray. Love you to Ray! Ray was a baby when us girls were teens. I wrote this way for anyone who reads this, that's not familiar with the history here.

Heaven got another angel. I feel such a hole in my heart! But Linda will always live in me & in my heart until I see her again!
