

Lois Louise Whittaker

December 14, 1935 - September 30, 2019

Lois Louise Whittaker, 83, is now at peace in her eternal home. On September 30, 2019, the cares of this world vanished in an instant and Lois is now free, in the presence of her Savior, as well as her parents, Dr. Otto and Ella Stucki, and her beloved sister, Elizabeth Calkin, who preceded her in death.

She is survived and forever honored by her four children, Libby (Jeff) Byington, Lloyd Whittaker II, Lonnie (Pam) Whittaker, and Larry (Michele) Whittaker, as well her treasured sister, Anna Williams.

She deeply loved and leaves behind two grand-daughters, Jessie (Chris) Malone and Colsyn Whittaker, and great-grandsons, Brandon and Austin Malone, all from Tennessee. Additionally, though time was limited together, she was so proud of her Byington Bonus grands (Ruth, Esther, Sarah, Talor, and Sterling), their spouses and children; her Texas family. She has numerous nieces, nephews and other extended family that were also very precious to her.

Lois had a heart for others, as a RN for most of her career; in retirement she loved to write, paint, read the Bible, listen to Gospel music, eat Mexican food, and talk about things that mattered. She shared her simple kindness with many friends and family who have gone on before her, and with those of us who remain.

We will honor her life at a memorial service on Saturday, October 19, 2019, at Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home. Visitation at 1pm (because Mom didn't like to get up too early!) and a service at 2:30.
