“ I will miss you more than words can explain G'ma. You have been the persona of sweetness and always have been as I grew up. I have and always loved being around you and G'pa either having a good day or making me giggle while complaining about something. But I'll never forget the times we had together and will see you one day soon. Time on earth is the snap of a finger for the time we will have in our forever. I love you and miss you.
