“ I was looking forward to getting a Christmas card last Christmas and when I didn't I thought maybe Marguerite had passed. I am so sorry to see in this post that she did in fact die. I am that cousin she had whose father was Joe D. Lambert, Marguerite's mom Arah Brown's brother. Years ago my family visited your area and spent a very lovely weekend with all of you. I didn't realize I had so many cousins. My condolences and prayers go your way from Indiana. May my cousin Marguerite rest in peace with her loved ones in Heaven. I'm sure she is missed by those in her family who are left behind. Love, JoAnne Lambert Samila

“ To the Brown Family We are sorry to hear about the recent passing of Margaret L. Brown. Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire family during this time of grief. May all keep in mind this wonderful promise from God where He assures us that our love ones will stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29) This above text is God's personal promise to all grieving family. From this promise can you envision your love ones and friend being reunited back with their love ones. Yes the resurrection to life will take place. Today your hearts are filled with much sadness. Yet in the days to come, your hearts will be filled with joy and laughter. This will be possible because of the resurrection to life. Yes please keep this promise near your hearts at all time. Remember that when God makes a promise it becomes a reality. For God does not lie. (Titus 1:2)
