“ Chief Miller, We were so sorry to see in the paper of your mother's recent passing. It's never easy to lose a parent, but we have all our memories of them to make it easier as time passes. We miss having you as Commander out here in West Nashville, but I'm sure things are better for you there. Wallace and Janice Lampley

“ Dear Margaret,

I will remember you every Easter Sunday. You always wore a beautiful corsage that matched your beautiful dress. You always had a smile.

I will miss you.
