“ My deepest heartfelt sympathy to the Patton family. It was a honor and a privilege to know Margaret. To know her is to love her .Margaret had the purest most innocent heart and soul of anyone I have ever known. She shared a life time of memories and told of days in goodness spent. She loved everyone and always wanted to give something of herself to each person. I will always think of Margaret and what a beautiful person she was and what a blessing she has been to my life .Sharon Rehm

“ Margaret babysat our four children when we went out of town. She was so sweet and kind and they loved her like a grandmother. They are now grown but remember her fondly. May this wonderful lady rest in the love of our Lord forever. Love Jim, Cheryl, Kristi, Jodi, Brad, & Casi
