“ My dearest Peggy,
As you know, I had been trying to find you most of my adult life. When I finally found your daughter’s information on the internet some years ago, and made that call, I’ll never forget what your son-in-law said after I explained who I was. He told your daughter “You’re going to want to talk to this guy.” And so we finally re-connected after 60 or so years. You’ll never know how much that meant to me, being that you were my closest relative on my dad’s side, a side I really didn’t get to know living in California, while you and all my other paternal relatives resided in the deep south. When we started to re-connect, you sent a lot of information about our family and also some about our grandfather which I was so appreciative of because it gave me an opportunity to know firsthand from you what an amazing person he was.
My 2 visits to you in 2015 & 2017 created memories that I will always cherish. I think one of the most emotional phone calls I ever received was when you called and offered me our Grandfather’s Grandfather’s Clock and some other heirlooms that meant so much to you. They will be cherished forever. I was so happy that you got a big kick out of hearing, when I spoke to you on your birthday in February, that my 12 year old granddaughter was over one day in January and she put a post-it note with her name on the Grandfather Clock. It’s good to know that it’ll stay in the family for many, many more years, and hopefully with her children also. Anyway dear, I am so happy we finally got to reconnect after all these years. You were a beautiful person inside and out, and I will miss you terribly.

I love you.

Thank you Steve, my grandmother was such a wonderful person. Always happy and always laughing, no matter the situation. I heard a lot about you and I know she cherished you! She will most definitely be missed greatly!

*Be well, and if you ever need anything you may call!
