“ Miss Marie was my mom away from home while I was a student at David Lipscomb in the 1960's. I was blessed to have her daughter, Marsha, as my roommate, so I was the beneficiary of homemade birthday cakes and lots of home cooking while a student. She always welcomed me into her home and usually tried to force feed me with her delicious homemade biscuits, which I loved!! She was a wonderful Christian lady, and I have sweet memories of her still. She has left a great legacy in her family and will be remembered fondly.
