“ Go fly high on that mountain dear sweet Lady!
Such sweet memories our families shared!
Going to the Nethery's home was always such a treat for me & Linda! Always so welcoming & peaceful! Mrs. Nethery was so loving, always looked forward to that big hug. For me she was such a force of strength, she always worked outside the home & ran her home when most Mother's were at home working. She did it all! I remember going to see her at Doochin's in Madison when it was time to buy school supplies. Then visiting her at the hardware store.
When we were all very little living across the street from the Netherys & all the neighborhood kids would gather at the Merrymans basketball goal, so much fun! It was truly a very sad day when they moved to Port Drive. But we all stayed in touch! We loved this family so much! Fly high with your Angels Mrs. Marie Nethery fly high!
