“ I will remember Mark for the love in his heart and as someone who cared deeply about the people in his life. When I think of Mark, there are so many positive memories to cherish.

He was a very creative and talented artist, whose unique style was unconventional, fun and entertaining. One Halloween he made a costume for our son that had toy cars all over it and all the car's headlights were lit up. It was the super light boy costume. He especially loved drawing cartoons and could capture the comedy and irony of a situation.

And now, all I can think of is that Johnny Cash song, The Man Comes Around. And in it he sings, "Then the father hen will call his chickens home". I know he is now in a better place and in God's loving arms.
