We are very sorry for your loss and regret that we could not join you at Aunta Martha's services. I will always have fond memories of visting Uncle Neil and Aunt Martha and all of you in Nashville when I was growing up. We were fortunate to be able to see Aunta Martha in recent years when she visited Charlotte. As always she was very kind and had amazing energy for her age. We know she is with God now in an amazing place. God bless and hope to see you soon.
