

Martha Ray Newberry

September 19, 1938 - January 22, 2025

Martha Ray Newberry (formally Barlow), of North Richland Hills, TX, passed away on Wednesday January 22, 2025, at her daughter's cabin in Counce, TN. She was born to Asa and Ruth Dickerson on September 19, 1938, in Ripley, MS. During her earlier years while living in Mississippi, Martha enjoyed playing bridge, riding motorcycles, playing funny pranks on her friends and family, and sitting along the shore at Pickwick Lake, sunning and allowing the minnows to nibble her toes.

Later in life, she enjoyed spending time with her dog, Milo, and visiting with family. She always enjoyed a good laugh, was witty and fun, and brightened every room she entered with her beautiful smile. She was a kind, loving mother, grandmother, and wife, beautiful both inside and out.

She is survived by her husband, James Newberry; two daughters Diana Cosby (Harry Cosby) and Rachel Adelman (Matt Adelman); and grandchildren Cole Cosby, Grier Cosby, Sean Adelman, and Audrey Adelman; as well as her beloved friends and extended family.

To donate in her memory to a cause she was passionate about, please visit Operation Kindness at <https://www.operationkindness.org/make-a-memorial-gift/> or another animal rescue organization of your choice that helps lost or homeless pets. Please send an ecard about your donation to rebarlow@gmail.com so we can thank you for your kindness.

“ I never knew Martha but I do know her daughter Rachel and the similarities are unmistakable. One of the kindest most loving individuals I know is Rachel. I am praying for our Good Lord to comfort you all as you adjust to life without a force such as Martha. Love to your family, Jane Dowdle Caston.
