“ I loved working with you at the Outreach Center. You made dreary days and drudgery lively and entertaining; yet, we still got the work done. I loved your spirit even when things were tough. You will be greatly missed.

“ Sorry you left so soon , my friend. The class of 57 will never be the same. The one thing I always loved about you was you never changed, and that is rare, but you were a rare person. RIP until we meet again. Prayers are with your family.
