“ Christine was there really throughout my entire life. She was there when I was born at mostly all my childhood functions I could had probably called her my second mom! My mom and her was best friends since they was kids. Christine joined us on several vacations, always over weather it being a weekday or a weekend day for visiting, eating dinner, playing cars games! And watching cheesy movies we to recorded on dvds lol, those were the good days and I remember so many memories growing up and as an adult she was always around she wasn't a friend she was family for sure!! She loved me like her own and loved my son and daughter just as much she was definitely her own person but she had love in her heart!! It had been awhile since I had seen her Christine became a very sick woman, I will remember a lot but one thing I will remember is on her last days in the hospital I had drove my mom out there to be with her so she wouldn't be alone if she happened to pass because it was very close! While she was resting her being under hospice care she really wasn't with us but she was somewhat I guess you could say, I was talking to mom and mom and I both seen her get like kinda excited almost like restless she heard my voice, it been awhile since I had seen her it was like she knew that I was there she could hear me!! Christine You will be remembered and missed and until we all meet again to have our grill outs and good home cooked meals may you RIP!!!

“ To my beautiful sister. I am now without any brothers and sisters. We've had our ups and downs over the years. But there was always Love. May Jesus, take your hand and lead you thru the golden gates of Heaven. May you finally find the peace you deserve. Love you always.
