

Mary Lou Baird

November 10, 1918 - August 17, 2016

BAIRD, Mary Lou Age 97 of Old Hickory passed away Aug. 17, 2016

She is preceded in death by her husband, Henry Douglas Baird; parents, James & Bertha Lawrence; brothers, Millard Lawrence, Vernon Lawrence and Roy Lawrence.

Survived by her daughters, Wanda Faye McClanahan & Linda (Ken) Keeton; son, Henry (Jeanette) Baird Jr.; sister, Elizabeth Thornhill; sister-in-law, Fleeta Lawrence; grandchildren, Randy (Teresa) McClanahan, Brandon (Natalie) Keeton, Erik Baird & Lance Baird; 5 great-grandchildren; 4 great-great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews.

She was a member of the Temple Baptist Church in Old Hickory.

Visitation will be at Phillips-Robinson Hadley Chapel, 1700 Hadley Ave. in Old Hickory, on Fri. Aug 19 from 4-8pm and again on Sat. Aug 20, from 10-11am with the service at 11am in our chapel. Rev. Jon Carnes and Brandon Keeton will be officiating. Interment immediately following at Woodlawn Memorial Gardens. Her grandsons & great-grandsons will serve as pallbearers.

The family would like to say a special thanks to the loving and caring staff who became like family and dear friends at Signature Madison Health Care.

PHILLIPS-ROBINSON FUNERAL HOME HADLEY CHAPEL, (615)847-1010.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary Lou Baird

October 14, 2022 at 08:02 PM

“ I and our entire Book Club are sorry to learn of your loss. We know how much you all love family and thereby the depth of your grief. Sincere condolences, Elaine Gillis and The Book Club of Old Hickory Library

Elaine Gillis - August 18, 2016 at 11:17 PM