“Marilyn and I worked together years back at Tennessee Bankers Association. Time helped us lose track of each other, but I never lost track of this amazing woman and all the laughter, fun, and bond we had as friends. Her smile and personality was contagious, so thankful I had the happiness of knowing Marilyn and Tim. My hearts hurts for Tim, her daughters and those grandbabies. Please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Love you Marilyn, Kay Barker

“Marilyn's parents and my parents were really great friends, therefore we were great childhood friends. Marilyn was a little older than me so it was my pleasure to follow her around and test her patience now and then. She was always so beautiful and a wonderful person to look up to. I will be praying for the family.
