“ We did have some good memories together. You will always hold a special place in my heart. I remember the funniest time was when Jessie was to be born and you were a nervous wreck. Thankfully Sharon was able to drive us to the hospital, because you were in no shape. I will always remember and love you for who you are and as the father to our Jessie.

“ I'm sharing an adorable memory that Lester really treasured of when he and Michael were kids. Lester walked in on Michael in the bathroom once and saw him standing in front of the mirror with his eyes closed holding a hairbrush to his mouth like a microphone singing along with the song 'Beth' by Kiss. Michael was singing the line that said "Beth what can I do". To this day I can't hear Beth on the radio without thinking of that cute story and a little boy Michael singing his heart out.
Rest easy, Michael...

“ One of my best memories. Mom left nickie and me with you, and we wanted something from the store. So you walked to get us whatever it was we wanted. You told us not to open the door for no one unless they knew the password. Which was poodgydoo. And guess who forgot the password. Lol yup you. You said every thing you could think of to get us to open the door. And we just watched out the window and laughed at you. I miss that big brother. And i picked a red candel because that was moms fav. Color. I love and miss you. But i also rest easy knowing you are safe.
