

Michael A. Hollingsworth

January 21, 1958 - June 23, 2017

Michael Anthony Hollingsworth, 59, passed away peacefully Friday, June 23, 2017 at Vanderbilt Medical Center in Nashville, TN surrounded by his family. Michael was born January 21, 1958 in Nashville to Patricia and the late Kenneth Hollingsworth. He graduated from Maplewood High School in 1976.

After high school, Mike starting working and eventually started a family with his wife Tammy Hollingsworth and their two daughters in Nashville. Mike was humorous, hardworking, and loving. His presence brought bright light into any room. His laughter and smile was contagious. His good energy was felt and his words were always encouraging. His love for sports was undeniable as well as his love for Nashville. He was the most loyal Titans and Predators fan you would ever meet. He loved all kinds of music and would often play the air guitar. He was an amazing father to his girls and husband to his wife. He loved his family unconditionally and took great pride in being honest and loyal. Heaven inherited the best man.

Michael is survived by his wife, Tammy (Weaver) Hollingsworth; daughters, Jennifer (Lerron) Moore and Michelle (Jimmy) Gilley; grandchildren, Logan Neufeld, Kaylee and Miley Gilley; mother; Patricia (Barnett) Hollingsworth; sisters, Tammy (Gus) Awali and Sheila (Greg) Muller; cousins, Pamela, Delia, Sonia, Phillip and Jerry; and numerous nieces and nephews. Michael is preceded in death by his father, Kenneth Hollingsworth, and his brother, Richard Hollingsworth.

A celebration of Mike's life will be held on Wednesday June 28, 2017 from 4pm-8pm at Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home, 2707 Gallatin Pike, Nashville, TN 37216. We hope you can join us.

“ To my brother Michael I'm really lost for words right now but I'm going to try my best. When God made you my love he broke the mode I've never met a man in my whole entire life that was as humble and kind and loved his kids and wife and grandkids and family as much as you did it was a privilege to have you as a brother I will find a special star in the sky tonight and I will name it after you love you forever and a day until we meet again in God's name amen
