“ What a special woman! She never knew a stranger and could converse with the best of them. I have many happy memories of time spent with Aunt Mildred including many shared with Sandra, Bob and their families. She will be greatly missed by my family and I.

“ You are so right, Hazel! :) Aunt Mildred was never at a loss for words and could make anybody, even strangers, feel so comfortable they would just fall into conversation with her. So many memories that bring smiles, some that leave us rolling on the floor laughing. We hold these memories dear in our hearts.

“ Bob, Sandra and family,

We were not privileged to know your Mother, but we knew Bob and he told us many stories about her extraordinary life. We wish we had known her...but we will never forget her. Please know our prayers and sympathy are with you and your family.

*Love,
Leslie & Shera*

“ I will always remember Aunt Mildred. She meant so much to many people. A caring, loving soul who was always fun to be around. Her stories were endless. Her life was never boring and I don't remember her ever being lost for words. She lived her life to the fullest.

Memories will always be cherished.
