“ I do not have the words to express my feelings for this wonderful Lady affectionately known to many as "Moni". Monica believed in me and gave me an opportunity when no one else would; she has had a greater influence on my professional career than anyone else and a profound affect on my personal life too. I will always cherish my memories of working with her at Medifax, the long talks we shared in her office and the wonderful "Thursday Meeting" stories she would tell us. She dearly loved her family, Tim, Holland and Halston as well as her Savior Jesus Christ. Monica's deep and steady faith in God will continue to inspire my own personal walk with Him. Please know that God has granted perfect healing to Monica and she is just waiting for us to join her; go rest high on that Mountain Monica your work here is done. Please read Revelations 7:16-17

“ Monica was one of the most dedicated people at Medifax and so creative in her work. I will never forget her big smile and the sparkle in her eyes when I would ask about her family when I was visting the Medifax home office. For her direct ways in keeping all of us straight when working on projects. And most importantly to me was her elegance in always wearing stilettos to work everyday no matter what !!

My thoughts and prayers to Tim, Halston and Holland. Time can only heal your loss and remember memories last forever.

“ I worked with Monica many years ago at The Potomac group when I was only 16. I was so young and impressionable, and Monica always gave me great advice. She was always so honest and upfront and that always meant alot to me. I always loved her spunky and passionate attitude as well as her sweet spirit. Words can not express the sympathy that I feel for her family during this time. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Monica and I worked together: first at a newly-acquired Medifax and then Emdeon. Monica was always fair and honest in all business dealings. She was tough but with a soft edge. I will miss her no-nonsense attitude...her ability to get things done...and her never-wavering fairness. I will miss her and truly hope that whoever reads this can smile at how good of an impression that woman left. -Matt T. Husband and Father

“ *Monica fought so valiantly. Her bravery was nothing short of inspirational. Her ability to hold her faith steady in the midst of such personal suffering, and in the face of death, are a testimony to the reality of the One that she placed her faith in. My small gesture to encourage her (Monica's Medley) was nothing compared to the powerful witness that I gained in return. She will always hold a special place in my heart that nobody else can fill.
