

Morgan Scott Holloway

September 15, 1995 - July 16, 2017

Morgan Scott Holloway, age 21 of Panama City, FL, passed away July 16, 2017. Preceded in death by his father, Joseph Holloway, III; grandparents, Clayton Morgan & Annie Morgan and Joseph Holloway, II; aunt, Ramona Keene. Survived by his mother, Tia Clark (Will Stephens); brothers, Joseph Holloway, Logan Holloway, and Ian Barker; grandmother, Frances Holloway; aunts and uncles, Mike and Peggy Morgan , Travis (Jessica) Morgan and Vanna Love; cousins, Chris Love, Anthony Love, Tyler Morgan, Wilson Morgan & Dawn Owens. Morgan loved Sour Sweet Tarts, Subway, Coke, and both Marvel and DC Comics. Morgan was a gamer, particularly enjoying the old classic games. Visitation will be at Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home Friday, July 28th from 11:00 a.m. until the time of services at 2:00 p.m. Special thank you to Randy and Tammi Dyce and all of the D & D Staff, the Pulmonary Care team, the Palliative Care team, and all of the loving nurses at Vanderbilt Medical Center for their care throughout the years, Tina Ford Patterson of the Florida House, Karen Key Smith of Beachy Beach Rentals and to Mike Cazalas of Panama City News Herald for getting us to Nashville in hopes of a double lung transplant and all the wonderful pediatric nurses at Sacred Heart in Pensacola, who have remained his dear friends throughout the years. And to all of our prayer warriors who gave it their all. It is with the sweetest relief for Mo, and the deepest regret for those who loved him, that we give you this news. Morgan took his last struggled breath at 2:36pm, on July 16th. Jesus brought him home where he is well and breathing easy. In lieu of flowers please make memorials to the CF Foundation, www.cff.org.

“ With sincerest sympathies....I am sorry for your loss. It is difficult bearing the loss of a loved one. Much heartbreak and pain are experienced. My prayer is that God comfort your hearts and provide you with peace. And may the encouraging words and deeds of others, along with your cherished memories keep you warm and strengthened. (Rev.21:3,4)

“ Tia, Will and Joseph, You are in our thoughts and prayers. You all gave Mo so much support, love and care and now he is being loved and breathing easy in the arms of our heavenly father. He was only on this earth for such a short time, and I know your heart is broken and you will miss him more than words can describe, but his eternity in heaven brings joy to our hearts and knowing you will see him again someday. Your D&D Events family is here for you always. Love You All!

“ Tia,

I am so sorry for the loss of your son Mo. There are no words that can relieve the pain that you are feeling right now, but know that you are not alone as the prayers of all your friends and family surround you at this time.

As a parent myself, I can only imagine the depths of anguish you must be feeling now. Losing a child is one of the most difficult experiences that you can face. I know the dreams and plans you had for your son are just memories now, but I hope someday that those memories will offer you comfort. I only hope that my words can convey a small portion of sympathy to you.

I am thinking of you and will keep you in my prayers.

With Most Sincere Sympathy

Love you

“ Offering sincere condolences. I am so very sorry for the loss of your loved one. No doubt this is a very difficult time for the family. Please find comfort in knowing that soon our Heavenly Father (Psalm 83:18) will give those who have fallen asleep in death the opportunity to live again (Acts 24:15) and serve him in a world under much better conditions than what we see today. (Psalm 37:29; Rev. 21:4,5)

“ I only met Mo a time or two, but I could tell he was a Golden Child. I am sorry for your loss, but I know that you know that he has gone to Heaven. Imagine that!! It's going to be tough, but I know you. Hopefully, probably, good will come out of all this. Take care, keep your chin up and focus. Love you.

“ Dear Tia, My prayers and deepest condolences go with you and your family during this raw time. There are no words that I can say that could ever make a dent in your grief. I do believe that Mo is free and light without the burden of his physical body and that he is even closer to you now. Heaven surely has a new angel and he is in th best of Hands. All my love always.

“ Dear Holloway family,

This is not an easy time. Though now you are grieving, please remember that you are not alone. Psalm 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." Pray to Him for strength. He will really help you (Isaiah 41:10) because He cares for you (1 Peter 5:7). Please visit www.jw.org to learn more about why we die.

“ A friend like you is hard to find. So genuine, kind and true, always giggling about the littlest things.

A friend like you is never gone though. I know you'll always be around.

I am so thankful to have met you many years ago at CF camp, along with your wonderful family. Thankful for the good times we all had. I'll cherish each moment and memory we shared.

Much love to you, Morgan, and your family. I pray for peace and love in this very difficult time. I pray that your continued love will help them and heal them of heartache.

I know you will always be with us. I know you are still here ❤️ You never left.

“ To my hero, the strongest person I know. I thank the Lord for lending you to me. I don't know what it was that made me that special to have been given the best kid in the world! You never had it easy, yet you never complained. You kept everyone's spirits up with your awesome smile and sense of humor. You were an inspiration to everyone who crossed your path, even hundreds of people that never even had the pleasure of meeting you. You truly left your mark here on earth. And you will never ever be forgotten. Be well, and breath easy my darling. Mama loves you and I will see you soon.
