“ All the joy, laughter, excitement, and funny memories Kesh brought to our family will not be forgotten.

There was never a person in a room that Kesh couldn't make a connection with and call friend.

Kesh lived for a good time. If I had to pick an emoji for Kesh it would be...😄. He was always trying to joke, live in the moment, and make the best of any situation. I've seen that very expression on his face many times while trying to make the people around him laugh.

Kesh had a kind soul and a giving personality. It was a mission of his to always help and give even at times when he himself had nothing to give. I once witnessed Kesh take the shirt off his back and give it to a homeless man because he had no cash to offer in that moment.

Kesh, you will be deeply missed by so many people literally from all around the world. Not many people can say that they touched the lives and brought so much joy to so many around the world.

Kesh, I pray that you rest in peace brother.

“ From the first time we met online till the day I said "I do" those memories will always be there. You showed me the world in ways I could have never thought possible and we created a beautiful and wonderful daughter together. Your time on earth was too short. You will forever be missed. May you rest in peace. Love Amie and Chandni 💕💕
