

Muriel Ruth Helton

August 2, 1922 - September 17, 2016

Muriel Ruth Thompson Helton, 94, loving wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and sister, passed from death to life on September 17, 2016. She was born to Myrtie Mae Camp and Cebron Claude Thompson on August 2, 1922, in Fayetteville, Tennessee, the second of six children, with two older half-brothers. She was married to Dr. Alvie Lee Helton, pastor, on August 29, 1948. She was left as a single mom, as a pastor's wife, after the death of her husband on February 29, 1960, to raise four children who survive her, Wayne, and wife, Ricki, Sharon, Stephen, and wife, Kathy, and Mike, and wife, Karen. Muriel is also survived by one brother, Bill Thompson, one sister, Myrtle Gilliam, eight grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. She carried the legacy of putting Jesus Christ first in her life and her home, which is carried forth by all four of her children. She was a very active member at her church home, Inglewood Baptist, for many decades. At age 48, she began to fulfill her life-long dream of becoming a nurse so she could love and care for people in need through her gentleness, kindness, and sharing of her testimony. She had the same impact on her co-workers as well at Nashville Memorial Hospital. The family will receive friends and family on Friday, September 23, 2016 with viewing commencing at 11:00a.m.-1:00p.m. at Inglewood Baptist Church located at 3901 Gallatin Rd., Nashville, Tennessee. The service will follow immediately at 1:00p.m. and burial in Spring Hill Cemetery to follow. There will be a reception following the graveside service back at Inglewood Baptist. In lieu of flowers, if you choose, donations may be made to Inglewood Baptist Church.

Tribute Wall

“ Muriel Ruth Helton

October 14, 2022 at 08:02 PM