“ I am so very sorry to learn about your Mom. I know you both have been through a lot these past few years. Now is the time to reflect on the wonderful times you had with her as I know I will growing up on Piedmont. What fun we had. I called to tell my Mom, who recently moved near me in Bowling Green. I wish we could attend, but I am in FL. Our prayers are with you all. In God's Grip, Linda

“ Dawn, Deb & family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Both your mom & dad were special to all of your friends growing up. They both made us all feel welcome anytime, day or night. Many, many late nights a lot of us would stop by and they made us feel like it was our home too. I think of them and you often.
