“ God threw away the mold after he created Maude. My husband, Hollis said it best when he said "When Maude walked into a room - it lights up." She loved life to it fullest and surrounded herself with her "pretties." She was a devoted wife, mother and friend. Maude often referred to herself as Mama-san and that was very accurate. In Japan and East Asia the Mama-san is a woman in a position of authority and that definitely describes Maude. Willie May, Papa Jim greeted her with open arms last Sunday. I am grateful for the 46 years that I had her in my life and pray that the sorrow her family and friends feel will soon be replaced by fond memories. Maude was at peace with Our Lord and Heaven is a better place with Maude watching us from above.

“ Love and comfort to you and your family Jimmy Ray. She will always be with you all in heart and mind. As time passes the sorrow will be overcome by thoughts of her love, smiles and goodness. Stay strong, live her legacy, and feel her love each time you think of her. God is watching over her now and she watches over you all.
