“ I'm sorry to hear of Olga's passing. My parents, Dot and Lillard Duke, knew Olga at the Old Hickory church, and I believe our family and yours lived a few blocks from each other on Hadley Avenue during the 50's-80's. It's sad to see the older generation fading away, but I think they all had a wonderful time for many years, living and working together in Old Hickory. I have fond memories of Olga's calm disposition and smiling face. God be with you. Linda (Duke) DeJongh
