You know even after 3 months this is still very hard for myself to process...you were always cool with myself and of course as you would know I knew you through my brother and it did really stun him when he heard about your passing he said you were a very good hearted person and I seen that as well...no matter what has been said about your untimely departure I know who you really were you were someone who had a lot of care inside of you...until will meet again my friend Much Love...
