“ Dear Family,I want to express my condolences to you for the loss of your dear loved one. Can you imagine a world where there will be no more death? Or sickness? Notice what the Bible says at Isaiah 33:24 and Isaiah 24:8 where it talks about a wonderful hope for the future. Soon this will be a reality and we know this because "God cannot lie" (Titus 1:2). The bible based website JW.ORG answers more intriguing bible questions. Again please accept my sincere condolences.

“ To the Family
I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you. May the God of all Comfort comfort you. He assures us at Revelation 21:3-5 that the day is soon to come in which he is going to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more.

“ I remember when I first met Lynn. She was waiting for the Casino Bus with Pat Richter down in the rec room and I was jealous because I didn't have the money to go AND she had the energy to keep up with Pat.

I remember being surprised to find out that she had lived here for as long as we had, about 4 or 5 years at that time. I don't know what they were doing on that bus, but whatever it was I think Lynn got on that bus as one person and got off another. She came out of her apartment more often and we saw her out more often at this event or that.

I have never asked anyone if she snagged Earl on that Casino Bus, but as a pair I cannot think of a better match. Lynn and Earl were always in step with each other without a word passing between them. It was magical.

Lynn was a sweet and kind person and I never heard an unkind word from her. I want to send my condolences to all the Farris family.
