“ I first met Patty in 1983.. she was an amazing woman.. I loved her “Boston” accent. She was such a jewel. She loved everyone she met, and never met a stranger! Thoughts and prayers with you Sheila, Brian, Michaele!!!

“ Condolence to the Family of Patricia Patton,
There are few experiences more difficult than losing a loved one in death. I find comfort in knowing death was not God's purpose for mankind and his purpose has not changed.
God's word is clear, "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces". (Isaiah 25:8). It is comforting to know that the grief and sorrow we experience is temporary. (Revelation 21:4). Because of Jehovah God's purpose and great love for mankind, the restoration of life is guaranteed!
As you know, Jesus not only spoke of the coming resurrection (John 5:21, 28, 29), he himself was resurrected by his Father and performed many miracles including resurrections. All such miraculous events took place on earth giving us a precious glimpse of what is to come.....seeing our loved ones again! (Acts 24:15)
