

Patricia Anne Vance

August 27, 1932 - March 9, 2020

Patricia Douglas Raney Vance passed away March 9, 2020 at the age of 87. Born August 27, 1932 in Nashville, TN, she was preceded in death by her parents, Hesker and Mary F. "Molly" Douglas; her brothers, Hesker L. (Myrtle) Douglas, Jr., John R (Marian) Douglas, James C. (Beverly) Douglas, and Allen (Dorothy) Douglas; sister, Frances (Carl) Heisterberg; daughter, Phyllis Anne Gray and her loving husband of 33 years, Tom S. Vance; and the father of her children, Phillip A. Raney.

Totally dedicated to her family and children, she spent a number of years as a homemaker. Her last employment was with the State of Tennessee as Office Supervisor of the Barber and Cosmetology Board after working many years in various departments of the State and in private industry. Her most rewarding job was a Legislative Aide for the Tennessee General Assembly in the early 1970's. Although a spiritual person, she was not a member of any organized religion.

Survivors include: Daughters, Linda Perkins and Teresa Wiegand; son, Rodney B. (Carol) Raney; grandchildren, Richard Thomas "Tommy" Gray Jr., Joseph Gray (Larissa), David Wiegand (Jeaneen), Kevin Wiegand (Alissa), Jeffrey Downing, Skylar Raney, Courtney Blair (Will), and Chase Latiolais (Jocie); great-grandchildren, Kate Mullen, Tessa Wiegand, Dax Wiegand, Ian Wiegand, Adelaide Wiegand, Aiden Gray, Alyssa Gray, Ethan Gray, Jude

Green, Ethan Blair, and Paisleigh Blair.

Tribute Wall

“ Patricia Anne Vance

October 14, 2022 at 08:02 PM