“ My sympathy to your family, GOD promise we will see our love ones again. Hope this take the sting out of death. John 5:28,29.

“ May you have peace in your time of grief. Grieving is different for each person. And to express tears over a loss of someone we love, and shared memories with is very appropriate. In God's word even Jesus wept. John 11:33,35. But his word also offers hope that we can see our love ones again (Titus 1:1,2) . May hope give you some comfort.

“ I flipped my 65 Impala SS in a ditch on Louise when the ambulances used to race to get there first. Paul was first on the scene and saw that I was ok. When the police got there they were trying to figure out how many tickets they could write on this one. Paul came to my rescue. He told them, "I know his Daddy. There is nothing you can do to him that will be as bad as what his Daddy is going to do. Why don't you just give him a break. I think he has learned his lesson." I received no tickets and this was the day my Daddy treated me like a man. He didn't do anything. I learned a couple of valuable lessons and will never forget what Paul did for me. That was my last crash that was my fault. I'm sure there could be thousands of similar stories of Paul helping others.
