“ It is with great sadness that I offer my condolences in your time of loss. Death at any age is too soon, because it was never part of God's original plan. I have also lost family and friends to death over the years and I am grateful that the scriptures provide reassurance, comfort, and hope, and answers to many questions about the condition of the dead. May you also find comfort in the many bible promises knowing that in time, there will be a resurrection and our loved ones will live again (Acts 24:15). May you also find comfort knowing that God really cares about you and what you are going through, and that your loved one is not suffering, but resting peacefully as if in a deep sleep until Jesus tells her to wake up (2 Corinthians 1:2-4; Ecclesiastes 9:5, 10). May these reminders along with the love and support from friends and family help you get through this difficult time. With heartfelt sympathy. www.jw.org
