“ I remember you brother Butler, visiting your home playing with your children, as I always welcome by you and your wonder wife sister Butler! I remember back in the in 1960, 1970, etc. riding in that white station wagon going to Giant Foods grocery store with you , your wife, and kids, even I remember when Karen was born , beautiful baby she was! while you and wife got snacks for us to watch tv, and had good time spending the weekend with Jackie as my friend, what wonderful memories that was! I'm turning 65 this July wow how the year flew by, can't wait to see you all in the new system for sure! ❤️ 100”
