

R.B. "Red" Cowan

February 23, 2014 - February 23, 2014

R B Cowan.

Born to William Exum Cowan and Elvie Jane Stewart Cowan on April 7, 1920.

During the years before the Second World War, he worked with the WPA learning the masonry trade, joined the US Army Air Corp and was stationed in England.

After the war he met and married Alene Bullard of Smith County. They had no children.

He was a Stone and Tile Mason for many years with Singer Tile, Nashville TN and was a consultant on the renovation of the Union Station Hotel in the late 80's. He was preceded in death by brothers: Joe (Martha) Cowan, James Cowan, and sisters: Jessie (Dewey, deceased) Haley, Georgia, (John, deceased) Lamberson, and Margaret Cowan. Survived by 1 sister-in-law, Martha Cowan, Dallas, TX, 2 nieces Linda (Sam) Sapere, Napa, CA and Cheryl (Carl) Marino, Dallas TX, and 2 nephews: David Swain, Brentwood, and Carl R Lamberson, Watertown TN.

Visitation will be from 10am-12pm at at Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home, 2707 Gallatin Rd. Services will be held on Monday, February 24, 2014 at 12pm in our chapel.

Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home.

615-262-3312

Tribute Wall

“ R.B. "Red" Cowan

October 14, 2022 at 08:02 PM