“ I'm really gonna miss you Uncle Ronnie. I'm sorry I wasn't able to get to the hospital or to the memorial service. But I know that you would understand with my situation. I will always treasure the doll that you brought me back from Germany. And the tater tots that I cooked and you and dad ate them in front of me as punishment. Or when you and Uncle Mike beat up Ricky for cutting the tires on Memmy's car and made us all laugh. Whenever we needed you, you were always there for us. Aunt Linda you know I'm here for you and I am just a phone call away.

“ Ronnie what are we gonna do without you? After about 15 years our Saturday nites will never be happy again. The restaurants we tried out and the vacations we took I will never forget. No one will ever call me Bubbles again. Even the lies you told about me Im gonna miss. Cause you the only one that could say them to me and I wouldn't get mad. The main one is I used to be a man. You had so many waitress laughing at us so bad. I gave you a hard time about your cigarettes but who let you smoke in their house? I love you my friend and gonna miss you so much.....
