The words Roy B. used to describe the Good Old Days in Marion County "Gateway to Crime"; beer joints "hog pens"; Marion County Court House "hall of justice"; the jail "the palace"; are just a few of the things Road Law Members will always remember about Roy B. and how he could make folks feel good.

“ Roy was a very special friend to me and I will never ever forget him. He had the greatest sense of humor and I believe that's what helped him to carry on after the loss of his wife. At the end of each of our conversations and phone calls he always said, "Stay Sweet, Debbie." I know that now he will never feel pain again because you don't feel pain or sorrow in Heaven. I love you, Roy.
