

Ruby Cecilia Rhymes

December 16, 1958 - October 23, 2022

Ruby Cecilia Rhymes

Devoted family woman and friend

Proverbs 30:10-31 'The Wife of Noble Character'

Ruby Cecilia Rhymes returned home to the Father on Sunday, October 23, 2022. She was born as the second daughter to Samuel Scott and Bernice Anderson Scott in Chicago, IL. on December 16, 1958. Ruby was baptized into the Christian faith in 1982 and lived as a Christian until her parting day. Ruby used her many gifts and giving heart to assist others in looking and feeling their best. She was a beautician, seamstress, guard, medical assistant/phlebotomist, and substitute teacher – a true “Jacquelyn of all trades”. Her favorite movies were westerns, love stories and comic book heroes. Ruby played video and word games, enjoyed fishing, and working with her hands.

Ruby always honored those that helped in her upbringing: paternal aunt Linnie D. Mormon, Horace Mormon (posthumously) and maternal aunt Grace Leon Mullins (posthumously).

She is survived by four daughters - Karen M. Scott, Teri S. Scott, Crystal M. Mitchell, and Maya S. Rhymes; Granddaughter - Tyjonae S. D. Stovall; sisters Brenda T. Redmond (Roosevelt) and Karen M. Murray (Fred); Nieces - Candace, Kimberly, and Erica; Nephews – Edward and Frederick; a host of great nieces and nephews. Dear first cousins Gregory Jordon, Marcia Eggleston (family), Jewel Davis (family), Marcia R. Leon (family), Lynda Flint (family), Dorice Leon, and many other close cousins. Dear friends – Debra Robinson, Sandra Hawthorne, Mary Dyson (Mrs. Tylor), Lisa Outlaw-Waller, Vanessa Johnson, and Melinda Hart, along with many lifelong Chicago friends and Nashville friends.

Ruby was preceded in death by husbands Darnell Rhymes (2009) and Perry C. Mitchell (1986), daughter Christian Rhymes (1996), and her parents.

Psalm 46:5 'God is in the midst of her, she shall not be moved; God will help her when morning dawns'.

“ Ruby, use to be in my late husband, precious Bible take, and her quite spirit was contagious. When we talk on the phone, I love to hear her laugh. We had plans on her and I becoming roommates at the end of her current lease, and the she got sick, but she was always, still in great spirits, she and i were both widows, but she was a widow twice, be remained a pillar of strength for her daughters. I have 4 daughters as well, and hope I can be her example for my 4 daughters as well. RUBY you will be missed, straight from the HART, your sister in Christ and friend, mel
