“ Sandra was one of the sweetest ladies I ever met. I grew up with her son Alan and we stayed overnight at their house many nights growing up. She was always there for anyone in need or for her community of Old Hickory which she loved. She loved God, her family, and her many many friends. She was a bright light that shined in a sometimes dark world. She is sorely missed 🌈. She was best friends with my long time neighbor Shirley Blair and I'm sure they are having a glorious reunion in paradise. She always accepted me for who I am and I'll always have fond memories of her.

Sandra always, without fail had a smile and a warm hug to greet me whenever our paths crossed. She entered my life as my friend mother and became my friend and cohort in service to our community. I will miss her laugh and that ever present love for others. Rest well Sandra, you served us well.
