“ Scott you will be missed dearly. I know that you had a lot of people that loved you very much. Sherry will be lost without you, you was her everything. This is what Scott would say to us all:

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to work, to love, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all to brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, he set me free.*

“ My family and I would like to give you our deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy that God never intended mankind to ever have to deal with—even the Bible says so. But one thing I take comfort from in hard times such as these is Isaiah 25:8, where God promises to do away with death. In hard times that thought can really bring a little light to the darkness. My family has yours in their prayers.
