

Sharon Fowler Gregg

November 7, 1946 - May 17, 2025

Sharon Fowler Gregg, age 78, of Nashville, passed away peacefully on May 17, 2025, surrounded by her loving family.

Born on November 7, 1946 to Burvle and Helen Fowler in Maud, Oklahoma, Sharon led a life defined by love, intellect, compassion, and service. She married the love of her life, Robert Baxter Gregg, on May 23, 1970, and together built a beautiful life rooted in academic learning and devotion to family.

Sharon was a gifted college professor at Trevecca Nazarene University, Tennessee State University, and Middle Tennessee State University; and she also served as Director of Admissions at the Belmont University School of Music. Her career in higher education left a lasting impact on generations of students, and her passion for teaching and mentorship inspired countless lives beyond the classroom. In addition to her academic work, Sharon was deeply committed to service as she dedicated time and energy to various charitable organizations throughout her life.

Sharon is survived by her devoted husband of nearly 55 years, Robert Gregg; her beloved sister, Burdeanna (Alford) Welch; her twin sons, Christopher Scott (Abi) of Watertown, TN, and Michael Lynn (Amanda) of Hermitage, TN; nephew, Steven (Annie) Welch; and seven cherished grandchildren: Brighton

Robert, Annaleigh, Beatrice, Grayson, Evelyn, Radford, and Morgan.

Sharon was preceded in death by her parents and her precious grandson, Edwin Baxter. Her wisdom, warmth, and spirit will be missed by all who had the blessing of knowing her; and Sharon's legacy of influence and service will continue through her family and the countless lives she touched.

A celebration of her life will be held on Wednesday, June 4, at 11:00 am at Immanuel Baptist Church (222 Belle Meade Blvd Nashville, TN).

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Belmont University School of Music Scholarship Fund.

“ This precious lady was my mentor. She was my business teacher in high school at Meeker OK. She encouraged me to run for state office in FBLA which I won and I got my first job because of her recommendation, which I worked from my senior year till I retired after 31 years of service. She was such a beautiful lady inside and out and she will always be such a blessing to my life! Blessing to you all and prayers during your time of loss. ❤️🙏
