“ In sharing my sincere condolences, I am sorry for your loss. Although, we are relieved to know our loved ones suffer in pain no more, the loss is still not easy. As a neighbor, my prayer is for God to provide your hearts comfort and that you stay strengthened and supported by family and friends. Take note of Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:3,4 when you get a chance. The Bible contains a wonderful hope. May the words found there warm your heart.
