

Susan Day King

December 21, 1949 - October 27, 2022

Susan Day King, 72, of Nashville, passed away on October 27th.

Susan was a wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother that loved her family dearly. She was a very outgoing and friendly person. Susan touched the lives of so many people, especially former students, from generation to generation. Their parents would fight to get their children in her classes. She was passionate about her profession and had a long career as a dedicated educator. As a member of the Tennessee Education Association, she was also a strong advocate for teachers and their rights.

Susan is preceded in death by her parents, Bluch and Christine Hitchcock; Son, Brent King; and Brother, Mike Hitchcock.

Susan will be deeply missed by her Husband of 50 years, Gary King of the home; Grandsons, Payton and Elijah King of the home; and Many friends and relatives.

Visitation will be held at Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home at 12pm to 2pm on Wednesday, November 2nd. A graveside service will be held on Thursday, November 3rd, at 11am at Spring Hill Cemetery.

“ I met Mrs King when my kids went to elementary school with her grandsons. I started working at that school and continued to see her regularly as she came to help as a substitute teacher. She was one of the friendliest and kindest people I ever knew. She always remembered things we had talked about and asked about my kids. I loved seeing her with the students at school and they absolutely adored her. My heart goes out to her family who she loved so much. I will really miss her.

“ As a long lost cousin Susan and I were reunited a little over 2 yrs ago. We enjoyed talking to each other and getting to know facts about our families. I felt led to call her last week and just didn't make that call, I will always regret that last chance to laugh and cry together. Being a long distance cousin allowed us to share things we wouldn't normally burden our families with. I am happy she has no tears in Heaven and joy and happiness in Christ Jesus. Eternity with God, Brent, Michael, and those that have gone on before us. We are praying for you Gary, Payton, and Eli.

“ My long time friend will be dearly missed. Memories of Susan's love to talk, her kindness to my mother and to others in her path, her love for 2 grandsons, Payton and Eli, our shopping trips and eating at Cracker Barrel, visiting open houses and many more will be treasured and carried with me.
May happy memories fill your heart as you remember Susan Day Hitchcock King. Rest in peace and free of pain. Love, Mary Ann Nelson & Willie
