“ I got to know Tammy in just the last few years, and found her to be a young woman with a very big heart. She was always ready to help her friends and strangers. She loved animals and always made room for one more in her home. She was a talker and could talk to people of all ages, never met a stranger. She was loved by her friends and will be missed. Her journey here on earth came with lots of pain and suffering but on her next journey the pain will be gone. My family will miss you but the boys will have their notebooks and pictures you made for them to remember you.
