

Tashelle Nikita Sherice Vaughn

June 14, 1990 - January 20, 2012

Tashelle Nikita Sherice Vaughn was born at Nashville's Baptist Hospital on June 14, 1990 to the parentage of Jerry Vaughn Sr. and Kimberly Wilson Vaughn.

She was a humorous child and had intelligence far beyond her years. At a very early age she developed a nurturing spirit about her and an intense love for both Cats and Dogs and was always empathetic to their needs often saving a stray from possible harm. These attributes developed into her being a devoted friend that would help when possible, loving family member and a doting Mom to her daughter Kameria.

She attended Hunters Lane High School and was a recent graduate of Nashville College of Medical Careers obtaining her certification in Medical Assisting.

On Friday, January 20, 2012 the beautiful spirit of Tashelle Vaughn left it's earthly presence and transitioned to join her infant daughter, Jaslyn Stewart and a grandfather, James Ray Vaughn Sr. who preceded her in this journey to her Saviours' heavenly home.

She leaves to cherish fond memories her daughter, Kameria Taylor, parents, Kimberly (Maesha) Guyton of Beaverton, OR and Jerry (Anita) Vaughn Sr. of

Nashville; three brothers, Anthony of Nashville, TN and Terry and Jerry Vaughn Jr. of Dayton, OH;
two sisters, Nikki Vaughn of Dayton, OH and Briea Pillow of Nashville, TN;
Grandparents, James (Doris) Selmon of Dayton, Ohio; Wathenia Vaughn of Columbus, OH and Michael (Doris) Lewis Sr. of Nashville, TN. Numerous family and friends including a special aunt, Tiffany Selmon and cousin Tyrinn Poole.

Visitation will be held at the PHILLIPS-ROBINSON FUNERAL HOME, 2707 Gallatin Road, Nashville, TN on Friday, January 27, 2012 from 12PM until the time of her service at 2PM. Interment will follow in the Greenwood Cemetery North.

Your New Home

You filled my life with so much love and now your home in heaven above
Your precious gift, a little girl to brighten up your whole world
Rest my child, she'll be just fine
I'll give her love with you in mind
When you look down you will see that you live on in her and in me.
Fly home my child, spread your wings
Enjoy the song the angels sing
Enjoy the clouds on which you will rest
He called you home cause you're the best.

With all my love,

Mom

My name is Noelle I used to go to school with Tashelle.... It's funny because we didn't get along at first (she was cool and i was not)but one summer we hung out and got to know each other I think about her all the time with her beautiful eyes and amazing personality she will always be unforgettable to me....I think of her often...Kameria you are the daughter of the most optimistic ,strong and beautiful person, she may have seemed tough when I first met her but she taught me how to be strong and how to carry myself with confidence.....I'm so glad there is still a piece of her here.....just know she is proud of you ❤️

“ Miss Kim, I didn't know Tashelle the way others at Nashville College of Medical Careers did but when I would see her in the hall or in a class, she spoke. She was so sweet and friendly. Always smiling. We only spoke a few times but when we did, She was a delight to talk to. I am so very sorry for your loss. It is so sad that she was taken from us so early in her life. Again I am so sorry for your loss. Prayers for the whole family are going up. Take care of each other and that beautiful baby of Tashelle.

“ My condolences and prayers goes out to all of Tashelles family and loved ones. As her neighbor we grew very close. I remember nights where neither one of us had much food in our homes and we would gather what we had and cook together for our babies. It's so hard coming home and not seeing her and Kameria. I love you Tashelle, you will truly be missed.

“ The more you are blessed, the more it hurts when you lose that blessing. I can't imagine how you feel and words of comfort simply cannot compare to the magnitude of your loss. I hope knowing you have the support of the many who love you will help you through the days ahead.

“ Tashelle, you never failed to make me smile. I cannot think of a single memory with you that did not include laughter and kindness. We will miss you so terribly, but find comfort in knowing you have been reunited with your precious child and now rest in God's embrace. I know we will see you again when we, too, are called home, and I know that your beautiful smile will be one of the first things I see. I love you and wish I'd had the chance to tell you that.

“ To the family it brings great sadness to know Tashelle has left your physical presence. I lift you up in prayer and believe that God makes no mistakes. No one know why but God and His word tells us He is mysterious. It may get harder with each passing day at first but know that Comfort & Peace will overshadow you one day. Stay encouraged and let God prove who He is. My deepest condolences to each one of you. Prayer will help in the time of trouble with believing Faith.

“ I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love. I knew Tashelle only for a short time and loved having her around. R.I.P. Tashelle gone but not forgotten

“ My heart goes out to your family, because you (Tashell) are alright in God's Heavenly home, yes your family is heart broken, fill with grief and not knowing, but you are free, when you heard your name called by a higher power you had to answer, you left them fond memories, and JESUS will help your family, all they have to do is call on him even in the midnight hours, you will always live in the hearts of the people you touch, God bless your family. the Trotter-Jones
