“ What can I say other than the Lord above blessed me and my two little Sisters with the best Mother there could ever be. I mean since the beginning of ever. It took me forever to grow up and I was so hard headed and thought I knew it all. So I didn't listen or care about what any body had to say. Except for when my mom spoke to me. My mom loved me like her son and that kind of bond is unexplainable. There were times she spoke to me that made me feel like I was floating in the stars only my mom could do that just by saying a few words to me her son. Don't get me wrong either thow. She knew how to stop me in me tracks every time with two words. My first and middle names said at the same time by her. I don't know how she knew when I was up to no good but she did everytime and it still puzzles me today. See my mom knew how rough this old world can be. So my mom let me make my mistakes when I was at the age to face the consequences. I should have listened to momma when she told me to stay in school. My mom was sweet, loving and kind and I miss her every second of every day. Just like I do my dad who we lost just the year prior. When I was younger older-smarter folks than me would try to tell me life is short and I need to make sure I spent as much time as I can with my family. My Mom and Dad are in Heaven now. I lived the first part of my life not the best I could. But all I know is I want to live the best life I possibly can now because I want to go where my Mom and dad and all my love ones are. I love you the mostest momma. I will see you again in heaven and I know your around me watching out for me because I feel you in my heart everyday.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of my Aunt Teresa that I will treasure forever. She will be missed but, never forgotten. Knowing I will see her again and that she is in the most beautiful place, full of love and laughter , where the presence of pain and sorrow do not exist. Surrounded by the warmth and love of those who have gone before her . Make this a little easier to bare.

In loving memory of an extraordinary woman- my beautiful Aunt Teresa ,who's light shone so brightly in the lives of all who were fortunate enough to know her. From the moment she entered a room, there was no mistaken her presence. Her smile, warm and inviting, was a beacon of comfort and joy to all who crossed her path. She had a rare gift of making each person feel seen, heard, and valued always taking the time to listen, laugh, and share words of wisdom no matter how difficult life may have been.

One thing I loved about my Aunt is she was also a friend. Her eyes always gleaming with warmth and her heart open without hesitation. Even in the toughest times her smile never wavered. It was a smile that radiated love and peace . Her legacy in our family is one of love and unity. She was an Aunt of love who helped weave the fabric of our family with threads of laughter, kindness, and compassion. Every gathering was brighter with her in it, every story richer with her voice, and every memory sweeter with her presence. We will carry her in our hearts, remembering the light that she brought into our lives and we will honor her by continuing to share that light with the world, just as she did . Though she may no longer walk among us, Aunt Teresa's love and memory will live on, an eternal flame in the hearts of all who were touched by her grace. We will miss her deeply, but we will never forget the beauty she brought to our lives and we will always hold her close in our hearts.

♥ Melanie , Paul and family .
