“ The loss of a loved one is never easy. Our loving Grand Creator understands our pain. In his word at Revelation chapter 21 and vs. 3 & 4, his purpose is to eliminate all things that cause us pain and sorrow. Please rest assured that our Grand Creator loves you and His purposes will never fail.

“ I extend my sincerest condolences to my Great Aunt Frances, Great Uncle Thomas and other family members. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

My children and I just recently met Cousin Robin for the first time in June 2010 while visiting West Virginia at Uncle Thomas' shop in town. I did not know Robin personally. He was polite and a gentleman to me and my kids. Robin and I took a picture together and I showed it to my brother and sister in Georgia on my way back to Florida. We never knew we had other family until this past summer.

You died way too young Robin. You died young like my Mother Elizabeth, your cousin. She was in her early 50's, too. Robin, say Hello to all of our loved ones in Heaven for us. When we walk outside at night and see the sparkle of the stars, we can be calmed that you all are winking down upon us with heavenly love. Rest in peace dear Cousin Robin.

*Much Love,
Veronica and children, Chance and Hope Gorman*

“ You are and have always been my Hero! Remember that day when we were young. A neighbor boy tried to assault me. I ran back to the house. I told you what happened. Robin ran from the house and chased thje boy away. I never forgot that day and you did not either. We talked about that day long ago. As adults we became friends again and cousins. I love you Robin Miller. You are and will always be a good man. May you rest in Heaven.

Love your friend and cousin.
