“ Rusty, I wish you'd had more time to be here with us, but I know you are resting peacefully and with our God in Heaven. You were an awesome friend, father, and husband! We will all miss your hearty laughter, your ability to share a story that we all may have forgotten about, and you kind heart dearly; and we will share memories of you for the rest of our lives! Rest peacefully brother! Love you always, Catherine Suter

“ I knew Rusty Hatcher as a man who was growing in the grace of God.

His last year's were filled with trouble brought on by those he thought he could trust. But in those troubled days, he made a stronger connection to God.

I remember the day he gave his simple eloquent "I am Second" testimony at Lockeland Baptist Church. We were all blessed.

I'm glad for the peace and joy he now shares with Jesus. My those who truly cared for him have at least some measure of the comfort Rusty now knows in abundance.
